

Urban Development and Rent In Lexington, KY

These two maps are meant to show if there is any correlation between Urban Development and rent in Lexington. The left map shows the amount rent has increased between 2017 and 2022 by Census Tract, as well as Urban Land Cover that developed between 2011 and 2021. For areas like downtown, where land cover is less reliable of an indicator of development, the right map shows the difference in height of the surface between 2010 and 2019 LiDAR digital Surface Models*.
